

I am against any opposition to XM radio. Clearchannel and other agencies have established a mundane generic sounding monopoly in my area. I do not receive the broad diversity of music and information on local broadcast AM or FM as I do on XM. When I lost my local Jazz station due to takeovers ... I was fed up. It's XM's right to provide an alternative and mine to decide to subscribe to it ... for ANY broadcast information content offered.